

WHY DOES IT MATTER

When we started confirmation this year, we discussed what a worldview is. Understanding different worldviews is necessary when examining our own faith. Part of knowing what we believe is understanding what we don't believe! As we continue to examine who God is, let's take a look at who other religions believe He is!

CHRISTIANITY

Using the information in Luther's Small Catechism and what we learned last week, answer the following questions.

What is the Trinity (Catechism question 151 may help!):

Why does God redeem us (Catechism question 176 may help!):

How do we receive forgiveness (Catechism question 208 may help!):

WHO IS GOD?

Part 2 -- Different Views On God and His Plan

OTHER VIEWS

Sometimes the most confusing views are the ones that sound like ours, but have dangerous nontruths in them. Using the videos and other resources, answer questions about the following religions.

MORMONISM

Is their God a Triune God:

List two big differences between their views on who God is, and our views on who God is:

What could be confusing about the similarities of this religion to Christianity:

WHO IS GOD?

Part 2 -- Different Views on God and His Plan

WHAT ARE MY QUESTIONS

After exploring the beliefs of a few monotheistic (one God) religions, what questions do you have about how they're similar and different to Christianity:

JUDAISM

Is their God a Triune God:

List two big differences between their views on who God is, and our views on who God is:

What could be confusing about the similarities of this religion to Christianity:

ISLAM

Is their God a Triune God:

List two big differences between their views on who God is, and our views on who God is:

What could be confusing about the similarities of this religion to Christianity: